Friend

Vickie Sue, Well, we have only one more year left, haven't these last three years been just great, I'm sure our senior year will be the greatest of them all. Never forget typing this year with Beniach, Yuckers what a teacher. Never forget P.E. with Evans HA!, remember drill team our first time at it. Remember the night we did our routine and the record skipped, we couldn't do the drill, we just marched off the field (upset) remember marching in the parade in Jacksonville for the all. College homecoming, we sure marched along way. Remember our double date to homecoming Oct 19, 73, you and Donald Kinsey, me and Don S. we had a real good time. Remember how fantastic our Prom was this year, nobody can beat the class of 75 right! right! Well, we've had some good times haven't we, never forget them. Remember always that you're my best friend. (Good luck next that you'll need it

DEDICATION

JAMES WEBBER

We, as members of the Senior Class, consider it a privilege to dedicate the 1974 Trojan Yearbook to Mr. James Webber. He has devoted his time, skill, and patience to his job, providing an excellent example of dedication for the students to follow in the years ahead. We leave with our thanks and with the hopes that we may retain the encouragement he has given us.

SENIOR PLAY May 18 & 19, 1974

BYE BYE BIRDIE
(Directed by Ken Bradbury)

BYE BYE BIRDIE, a musical play, tells the story of a rock and roll singer who is about to be inducted into the Army. The singer, Conrad Birdie, (Bruce Surratt), the Elvis Presley type, is continually being sheparded by Albert Peterson (Ron Fricke), his manager, and Rosie (Pam Bridges), Albert's faithful secretary.

And it is Rosie who invents the money-making scheme for national publicity before Conrad leaves for the Army. He will bid a typical American teenage girl goodbye with an all-American kiss. Kim Macafee, (Janet Crawford) in Sweet Apple, Ohio, wins the honor. But when Rosie tries to call Sweet Apple, all the phones are tied-up by Kim's friends who sing about her recent pinning to Hugo Peabody (Gerry Beard).

When Conrad arrives in Sweet Apple, the town is upset with the presence of a celebrity. But the tables are turned when Hugo Peabody decides that Conrad Birdie isn't going to kiss his girl goodbye.

Visiting

I really enjoyed this week. I've had a good time and I think that you've made a great deal of progress in English class. I'm glad that you've had a chance to get to know Hope and Stacy. We had some good times together. Remember to study hard and take care of yourself. Don't forget to write me. Please write me a letter when you have time. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Brown

Dear Bonnie,

I'm really enjoying my visit to Hope. Stacy and I have been having a great time. Thank you for your letter. I'll write you a longer letter soon. Please write me when you have time.

Sincerely,

Lucky

Dickie.
Well here we are Seniors it doesn't seem that long ago since we were In 1st grade. Remember in 1st grade we'll all be going our separate ways next year. I'll miss you a lot & I know you will too. I wish you really good luck in the future. Keep in touch.

Vickie,
To a sweet girl
May your life be filled

Good

Vickie,
To a good friend. One of the clan. Never forget all the good times we've had. I can't begin to name them all. People are always taking my places up. How shall I begin. Remember our great class, greater since I'm in it. Remember our sophomore year with piggy, she was a real Vickie! Lou Lou just like you.

To a nice person in the senior class. Remember all the fun times that we have had at Woodhaven. and all the mischief every body got into. Remember the time you and Chris tore up our room. Good luck in everything you do.

Vickie
To a very nice girl in the senior class. Be good in your last year at H.H.S. and try not to get into to much trouble (If Possible) Good luck in the future

Vickie is really a nice girl to know. I'm glad I got to know you. Have a nice summer. Good luck here in Penn. Good luck in the future. Don't ever change. Love ya. Pat

Vickie,
Well looks like I gotta write down here. It's been a pleasure knowing you. Have a nice summer and good luck in the future. Don't ever change. Love ya. Pat
